

Keepers of Our Sacred Fire

A Circle for Women of all Ages

November 2 - 4, 2018

Kirkridge Retreat Center, Bangor, PA

A Courage & Renewal Circle of Trust®

with Carol Kortsch and Caryl Creswell

*May we discover the gift of the fire burning in the inner chamber of our being—burning great and bright...
May we be forgiven for what we have forgotten
and blessed with the remembrance of who we really are.*

-From the Terma Collective:

Calling together a woman's circle for all ages - rediscovering and fanning the sacred fire within that has been forgotten, neglected, and though close to cultural extinction, has always been there!

Our learning will be done together in large group, small group and solitary settings, through song, poetry, story-telling, and wandering in the beautiful wild land around Kirkridge Retreat Center and Columcille Megalith Park.

We together will co-create a trustworthy circle in which we can listen beyond human conversation to the dream of Earth, learn from our Ancestors who still speak, and from our own personal and communal deep wisdom.

Do you long to celebrate within a human community that honors the silence of rock, the ripples of a tarn, and all other creatures? Are you ready to stretch out of the confines of your old story and welcome the new story that has been whispering in your dreams? Are you one who loves learning and has been taught through systems and institutions that are no longer working for you and your people?

Come together as Keepers of our Sacred Fire!

Carol Kortsch has been offering nature-based Courage & Renewal retreats in Pennsylvania for the past decade. As a life adventurer and Earth listener, she has recently moved to Colorado where she continues to revel in mountain air and re-wild her soul.

Caryl Creswell is a Courage & Renewal facilitator and has been involved with Courage work for the past 10 years. She also has worked for many years with children and adults in a program which deeply values the spirituality of children using story and play.

SPECIAL NOTE: Two parallel yet separate retreats at Kirkridge will be held on the same weekend
“Male Journeys: Reclaiming Our True Selves” – a men’s circle with Jeff Creswell and Anthony Arendt

Both retreats desire to recognize the importance of inter-generational presence and wisdom. Bring a younger/older soul friend!

COST per person: $435.00 (includes all meals, snacks and lodging in double occupancy rooms)
