PSFC's Family Fun Day set for October 5

East Stroudsburg, PA— Games, pumpkin painting, a moon bounce, complimentary books, and refreshments will be part of the festivities at Family Fun Day, being held on Saturday, October 5, at Dansbury Park in East Stroudsburg.

The free, annual event is open to the public and is sponsored by Pocono Services for Families and Children. It runs from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., rain or shine.

Youngsters will be able to get their face painted by Barbara Bush and Tootles the Clown, while Tumbles the Clown will be making balloon animals. Magician Mark Mysterio will be entertaining those attending. And an interactive smokehouse will let kids learn about fire safety.

Great prizes will be offered through a tricky tray to benefit PSFC. Music will be provided by a DJ and there will be food like hot dogs and hamburgers.

A community yard sale will be another highlight of Family Fun Day. In addition, the Cops 'n' Kids Literacy Program will be providing complimentary books and featuring guest readers from the Stroud Area Regional Police.

For more information, visit www.psfc.org or call 570-421-2711. PSFC is nationally and state accredited, and has preschool centers in East Stroudsburg, Coolbaugh Township and Brodheadsville, as well as classrooms at JM Hill, Resica Elementary and Middle Smithfield Elementary.

The mission of Pocono Services for Families and Children is to provide resources for the evolving needs of community children and families, in support of efforts to achieve their goals. The nonprofit agency is celebrating 48 years of service and continues to expand services and implement new programs. Its programs include Head Start, Keystones to Learning, parenting education, emergency assistance and youth mentoring.
