MEMORIAL SERVICE

Brothers, let us remain mindful that the Apostle Paul advised us in the 6th chapter of his letter to the Ephesians that we are to be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day and having done all to stand. (Verses 10-13).

Brothers, we know that life itself is filled with swift transitions. Let us resolve ourselves to aggressively live out our cardinal principals with vigor. Let us never forget our motto and how intricately tied we are to one another. The enemy is in the world to stir up discontent amongst the people of God, and it is his desire to sift you as wheat through a strainer. But we know that we are more than conquerors and that we have been endowed with the very essence of God through the Holy Spirit. He fights for us and with us through every trial we may encounter. So my brothers, I encourage you to continue to press through struggles and disappointments, and know that you have an advocate in Christ Jesus who sits at the right hand of God making intercessions on your behalf.

HEALTH INITIATIVES

Diabetes is one of a number of diseases that involves problems with hormone insulin. The pancreas releases insulin to help the body store and use the sugar and fat from the foods you eat. Diabetes can occur when the pancreas produces very little or no insulin, or, when the body does not respond appropriately to insulin.

Fall 2018

There are three main types of diabetes: Type 1, Type 2, and Gestational:

Type 1:

This type usually starts in childhood. Your pancreas stops making insulin. You have Type 1 diabetes for your lifetime. The main things that lead to it are:

- Family history. If you have relatives with diabetes, chances are strong you'll get it, too. Anyone who has a mother, father, sister, or brother with Type 1 diabetes should be checked should get checked. A simple blood test can diagnose it
- Diseases of the pancreas. They can slow its ability to make insulin.
- Infection or illness. Some infections and illnesses, mostly rare ones, can damage your pancreas.

Type 2:

If you have this type, your body can't use the insulin it makes efficiently. This is called insulin resistance. Type 2 usually affects adults, but it can begin at any time in your life. The main things that lead to it are:

- Obesity or being overweight. Research shows it is a top reason for Type 2 diabetes. Because of the rise in obesity among U.S. children, this type is affecting more teenagers.
- Impaired glucose tolerance. Prediabetes is a milder form of this condition. It can be diagnosed with a simple blood test. If you have it, there's a strong chance you'll develop Type 2 diabetes.

Common warnings signs of Type 2 diabetes include increased thirst, increased hunger (especially after eating), dry mouth, frequent urination or urine infections, unexplained weight loss (even though you are eating and feel hungry), fatigue (weak, tired feeling), blurred vision, headaches.

Most early symptoms are from higher-than-normal levels of glucose in your blood. The warning signs can be so mild that you don't notice them. That's especially true of Type 2 diabetes. Some people don't find out they have it until they get problems from long-term damage caused by the disease. With Type 1 diabetes, the symptoms usually happen quickly; in a matter of days or a few weeks.

One of four people with diabetes are unaware they have the disease. In the U.S., approximately 7 million people have the disease; 10% have Type 1 and 90% have Type 2 diabetes, respectively. In addition, the disease impacts Hispanic/Latino Americans, African-Americans, Native Americans, Asian-Americans, Pacific Islanders, and Alaska natives significantly more than others.

How diabetes is diagnosed:

The fasting blood glucose test is the preferred way to diagnose diabetes. It is easy to perform and convenient. After the person has fasted overnight (at least 8 hours), a single sample of blood is drawn and sent to the laboratory for analysis. This can also be done accurately in a doctor's office using a glucose meter.

OMEGA LIFE MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM

The Omega Life Membership Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization, was created to contribute, sustain, and assist in the growth and development of the fraternity's various social and mandated programs. The foundation donates over $250,000 annually to Omega-related programs such as the International Talent Hunt Program, Undergraduate Leadership Caucus, and Omega Scholarship.

The cost of Life Membership is $2,500. Brothers who purchase a Life Membership will received a plaque and a gold metal card. In investing in Life Membership, brothers are exempt from future International dues and are guaranteed to receive a lifetime of Oracle communications. Life members must still pay annual district and chapter dues. Nu Omega has over 70 life members making it the chapter with the largest life membership representation in the Tenth District.

Fall 2018

There are three ways to secure Life Membership:

- 1. Make a one-time payment of $2,500 through the fraternity (www.oppf.org).
- 2. Pay in two installments of $1,250 over a 2-year period while staying current with the local and district dues.
- 3. Apply for an "Omega Life Membership Loan" from the Omega Federal Credit Union (www.oppffcu.com).

Please reach me with any questions regarding Life Membership.

QUE LUNCH BUNCH

The Que Lunch Bunch was formed in the early eighties as a way for retired members of Nu Omega to support black owned businesses located in the City of Detroit. Monthly, retired members of the chapter would select a local black owned restaurant where they met for lunch and discussed local political and fraternal affairs.

Today, brothers prefer to use the fraternity house to fellowship and address the needs of the chapter and the community. What started out as a 2 to 3-hour gathering is now an all-day event. The purpose remains the same as indicated by some of the projects the lunch bunch has performed.

- Ω Purchased conference room chairs for the
- Ω fraternity house.
- Ω Painted the basement floor.
- Ω Sealed the basement walls against water leaks.
- Ω Brother Ato Polk facilitated seminars on the need for a Will or Trust.
- Ω Purchased school uniforms for school children in need enrolled in the Detroit Public Schools Community District. Spain, Golightly and Clippert received thirty complete sets of uniform.
- Ω Facilitated Golightly School book bag and school supply distribution donated by Ford Motor Company.

The menu for the Que Lunch Bunch varies monthly. It has included soup and sandwich, baked and grilled chicken, fish, a full thanksgiving dinner and an old-fashioned Louisiana shrimp and crawfish boil. No matter what the menu, there is always plenty conversation included. Every month, on the Thursday before frat meeting, at noon, at the frat house, for a cost of $10, all brothers are welcome. To learn more contact Brother Sylvester Brown at (313) 300-5399 or Clyde Gray (313) 595-3128.

EMPOWERING AFRICAN AMERICAN MALE YOUTH THROUGH EDUCATION

The Southeast Michigan Omega Foundation, Inc. (SMOFI) held its annual scholarship banquet June 2, 2018 in Southfield, Michigan, honoring six youth, each, who will receive a $5000.00 award over a four-year period. Each year the foundation searches for those young men who are academically successful, show a financial need, and; have demonstrated community and school leadership. The evaluation process is rigorous, but it has produced great graduation results among those chosen to receive the award. Since calendar year 2001 SMOFI has awarded seventy, four-year scholarships totaling $350,000.00 to deserving students and achieved an 88% graduation rate. Many of these students have graduated in the STEM curriculum and gone on to get master's degrees in their chosen fields of study.

Candidate for Grand Basileus, Charles Bruce delivered an inspiring message to these young men. He weaved a great story around the four Cardinal Principles of the fraternity and the importance of what the foundation and the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was doing for them to get a jump start on their academic and professional future.

Fall 2018

Pictured here are five of the scholars with Brother Charles Bruce, Brother Darryl Jones, Tenth District Representative, and; the SMOFI board of directors. Each chapter is represented by two scholars who have been selected by the foundation. This year, a scholarship was named after Brother John Williams, past International Photographer for Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and a member of Nu Omega Chapter. The second of the two recognized scholars were awarded a scholarship on behalf of Brother William McGill.

The Omega men in the Talented Tenth District, in southeast Michigan are making a difference now to impact our community and fraternity in the future. Exposure to Omega Psi Phi Fraternity under these circumstances have proven to be a very positive image and motivation to attract some of the best and brightest to the fraternity.

At this same event Brother John Williams was paid a tribute for the many years of dedicated service to Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. for serving as the fraternity's first international photographer. After 33 years of service Brother retired from his post in 2006 and was named "Omega's" International Photographer Emeritus". Today, Brother Williams' photographic work is housed at the John H. Williams Museum located at the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity International Headquarters in Georgia. There, Brother Williams' work displays the many years of historical events captured in photography.

QUES IN THE NEWS

Brother Albert (AI) Smith III is a former U.S. Naval Intelligence Serviceman specializing in radio-wave & satellite communications. Brother Smith has spent the past 3 years as a contractor at the Ford Motor Company within the IT Organization (mobility sector). He is the Global Carrier Operations lead within the L1+ Operations Engineering team which has now transitioned to Ford's new front line "First Responder Service Group". They are responsible for monitoring and triaging Ford's connected mobility platform. The team was consolidated with Ford's Ops Control who supports IT applications at a global level, with Ford, into a single team. This change will position the team to deliver a more streamlined customer engagement model, and also to drive a robust and positive customer experience for product driven teams.

Since Brother Smith's first day at Ford, June 24, 2015, he was challenged with his new team which was comprised of a cadre of information technology SME's (Subject Matter Experts). His past experience and education in the Telecommunications/Information Technology sector gave him the tools he needed to prove he was a "value-add" to the team comprised of talent from all over the globe. Due to a number of organizational changes within the portfolio, the team encountered a downsize in resources.

Brother Smith's knowledge base and ability to perservere allowed him to be the "change agent" needed to overcome the barriers before him.
