

Brown Summit High School Alumni and Friends Association Scholarship Student Application Form for Seniors Graduating 2024

The Brown Summit High School (BSHS) Alumni and Friends Association may award scholarships annually to young men and women who are descendants (those of biological or legal guardianship) of BSHS Alumni or others as determined by the scholarship committee.

An additional one to ten points may be added to your total rating if you, your parents, or grandparents have actively attended and participated in past annual BSHS Alumni and Friends Association reunions.

Completed typed applications must be submitted to BSHS Alumni and Friends Association Scholarship Fund Committee. Applicants must be planning to attend an accredited undergraduate college or university, vocational or technical school for the period applied.

Awards will be distributed after the BSHS Alumni and Friends Association Scholarship Fund Committee receives documentation that the applicant has enrolled.
