

THE GREATER POCONO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE 23RD ANNUAL EXPO SPONSORED BY GEISINGER/GEISINGER HEALTH PLAN

Geisinger/Geisinger Health Plan was the major sponsor of the Greater Pocono Chamber of Commerce Expo 2010. The event was held at East Stroudsburg University's Koehler Field House on March 10th and 11th. PPL was the sponsor of the two-hour VIP Reception, which gave all the exhibitors and guests an opportunity to network with each other before the official ribbon cutting ceremony. Mr. Frank J. Trembulak, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Geisinger Health Systems, cut the ribbon symbolizing the start of EXPO 2010. Also taking part in the ribbon cutting ceremony was Tobyhanna Army Depot's Commander Colonel Charles Gibson.

More than 150 businesses displayed their goods and/or services. Each person attending the event was given a canvas tote bag, printed with the names of the sponsors. The Greater Pocono Chamber of Commerce would like to thank our Major Sponsor Geisinger/Geisinger Health Plan, who has sponsored this event for the past four years, and PPL for, once again, sponsoring the VIP Reception. A thank you also goes out to other sponsors including: Adams Outdoor Advertising, Advanced Business Equipment,

Diadime Color, Inc., East Stroudsburg University, First National Bank of Palmerton, Friedman Electric, Greenleaf Productions, Inn at Pocono Manor, Lehigh Valley Hospital, Nassau Broadcasting, Northampton Community College, PenTele Data, Ray Price Stroud Ford Lincoln Mercury, Reilly Associates, WBRE/WYOU and Wilkes-Barre/Scranton International Airport.

ESSA BANK & TRUST ANNOUNCES BRANCH EXPANSION INTO LEHIGH VALLEY

ESSA Bank & Trust has announced the expansion of its branch footprint into the Lehigh Valley. Construction of two new in-store branches is currently underway inside Weis Markets in Cedar Crest Plaza in South Whitehall Township, Lehigh County; and on Crawford Drive in Bethlehem Township in Northampton County. Construction of a third branch inside Weis Markets on Route 873 in Schnecksville will begin shortly. These in-store branches will help ESSA reach out to new customers in the Lehigh Valley and provide additional outlets of service to existing customers. In addition, ESSA will offer added convenience with seven-day banking and create new employment opportunities with each new location. Along with ESSA's new Mountainhome facility that opens later this month, ESSA will operate 17 full-service branches throughout Monroe County, in the Slate Belt area of Northampton County, and in the Lehigh Valley.

"ESSA has created a business model based on our five Guiding Principles that is designed to work in any economy," said Gary S. Olson, President & CEO. We strive to remain independent and to be around for the long term. Capital and credit quality remain important elements in ESSA's financial picture. The company is in excellent condition in both areas, and we have money to lend."

ESSA Bank & Trust offers a wide variety of products and services for both consumers and businesses. Business services include commercial loans and lines of credit, checking account options, ACH originations, merchant processing services, and money market accounts.

ESSA also operates ESSA Investment Services where innovative investment and insurance solutions are delivered by qualified investment executives.

ESSA Bank & Trust is a wholly owned subsidiary of ESSA Bancorp, Inc. which has total assets of over $1 billion and is the leading service-oriented financial institution headquartered in the greater Pocono, Pennsylvania region. Corporate headquarters are located in downtown Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania. With the opening of the Mountainhome Office and the three Lehigh Valley branches, ESSA Bank & Trust will have 17 community offices throughout the Pocono, Pennsylvania area and the Lehigh Valley.

The United Way of Monroe County's Board of Directors has appointed Mathilda Sheptak as the nonprofit's new executive director.

Sheptak most recently was the chief operating officer and vice president of the Pocono Mountains Visitors Bureau in Stroudsburg. She brings expertise in market analysis, long range planning, new product/program development, brand marketing, project management and team building to her new position.

A former campaign chair for United Way of Monroe County, Sheptak also previously served as the agency's board president. She received many honors during her service as a volunteer, officer, and campaign leader with the organization.

Sheptak replaces former executive director Timothy Kelly, who relocated in January to upstate New York to become executive director of the United Way of Cayuga County.

According to Board President John Casella, Sheptak's impressive experience, background, leadership roles, and relationships in the local community made her the clear choice for the position.

Besides her involvement with United Way, Sheptak has been a board trustee of the Pocono Environmental Education Center, board of director member for Jacob Stroud, and former board member and president of the Pocono Family YMCA. Her additional community service includes the Mattioli Main Street Project, Pocono Mountains Chamber Environmental Committee, Monroe County Economic Advisory Committee, Monroe County Litter Control, ESU Department of Recreation and Leisure Service Advisory Board, Brodhead Watershed Association Board, and Burn Prevention Foundation Board.

A long-term resident of Monroe County, Sheptak lives in Stroudsburg with her husband Steve. Her distinctions include receiving the Athena Award from the Greater Pocono Chamber of Commerce and the prestigious Clifford R. Gillam United Way Award for volunteerism.

As executive director of the United Way of Monroe County, Sheptak will oversee a staff of three full-time and two part-time employees. Besides the board of directors, she will work with countless volunteers and interact with various committees.

Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate Wilkins & Associates

Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate, LLC in Parsippany, NJ announced that The Carl Maurer Team, a part of the Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate Wilkins & Associates Bushkill office, placed 1st and 2nd in the company's Annual Awards for 2009. In the Partners category The Carl Maurer Team won 2nd place in units sold and 1st place in gross dollars according to Wendy Forsythe, Vice President of Network Services. Said Forsythe, "We recognized award winners in three categories. The categories were Achievement, Master and Performance. The Carl Maurer Team won 1st and 2nd in the Performance category. Quite impressive."

Carl Maurer, Assoc Broker with the Wilkins organization for the past 14 years and this team of three handle a number of accounts including REO accounts that make them one of the largest foreclosure dealers in Northeast Pennsylvania. Said Thomas R. Wilkins, CEO "Carl's team performance isn't taken for granted; instead, we've got a team that handles a whole lot of the bank owned properties. They worked very hard this past year to be the recipients of this great award."

The Carl Maurer Team consists of Carl Maurer, Assoc Broker, Dennis Farrelly, Realtor and Donna Sorrentino, Admin Assistant.

Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate Wilkins & Associates was the first office to join the Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate network in 2008. They can be visited at www.wilkins1.com.

Michael Baxter & Associates Names Brian Coyne Director of Marketing

Michael Baxter & Associates Commercial Real Estate & Property Management is proud to announce Brian K. Coyne as Director of Marketing. This newly created position is responsible for all aspects of advertising, marketing, promotion and public relations for the company.

Brian has been with the firm as a Commercial Advisor for nearly seven years. Prior to entering commercial real estate, he was Creative Director for ten years of a New Jersey based advertising agency. Mr. Coyne also has several years' media sales experience.

"I am very excited about promoting Brian to this new position. He will take our already successful marketing to the next level which is needed in today's challenging market and provide our customers and clients with the service they deserve" says broker/owner, Michael Baxter.

MB&A is the leading commercial real estate firm in the Pocono Mountain region. Over the past 10 years, MB&A has sold and leased over $200 million of commercial real estate. According to 2009 data from the Pocono Mountains Association of REATLORS®, MB&A has sold and leased over two and a half times the amount of commercial real estate than its nearest competitor.

A & B Sunrooms and Porch Enclosures recently has received two awards. Bill Winkler and Phil Rasmussen attended the Annual Meeting in Chicago for Sunspace Modular Enclosures in February. A & B Sunrooms was nominated as one of the most progressive companies in United States. Sunspace is a sunroom manufacturer located in Canada and distributes throughout Canada and United States. 100th Anniversary Celebration Gala

Shiro is now Desaki

Swiftwater, April 1, 2010 – Vincent and Charlie Trapasso, owners of Shiro Restaurant on Route 611 in Swiftwater, say their establishment will now be called Desaki.

"We have chosen to change the name to Desaki because we learned Shiro is already used by a restaurant in metropolitan New York," Vincent Trapasso said, "and although we received permission to continue to use the name for this location, there were caveats that would probably limit our future growth. Anyone who knows me, knows that I'm too entrepreneurial to think in those terms!"

In fact, under the new name, Desaki, the Trapassos will be renovating to accommodate additional Hibachi tables as well as adding a second story dining balcony which will overlook the restaurant and nightclub.

"We are so excited about the growth of tourism in the Pocono region", Trapasso said, "and we want to make room for our local customers as well guests who are experiencing this area for the first time".

"We selected Desaki," he continued, "because it means 'destination' in Japanese, and that's exactly how our loyal customers commonly refer to us – as a destination."

Trapasso emphasized that customers can expect the same quality and service that have led to being named 'Best Japanese Restaurant' by Pocono Mountains Restaurant Week 2009, 'Best Dance Club' by Poconobest.com' and 'Best New Business' at the 2009 Bizzy Awards. Desaki will continue to be a dynamic experience that offers fun family dining and sophisticated nightlife, while remaining a company that is committed to being an active member of the community.

The Trapasso's company was also recently honored by the United Way of Monroe County with its "Rising Star" award for the "Night of Good Fortune" held at the restaurant this past October, from which 100% of the proceeds were donated to the United Way. In addition, Desaki will be hosting its third Martinis & Manicures event on April 8th which has benefited both Women's Resources of Monroe County and the Suzanne Zale Buck Ovarian Cancer Awareness Fund.

"We very much appreciate the support that we have received from our customers and the community," Trapasso said. "We look forward to providing the same exceptional experience at Desaki that they have come to enjoy time and time again."

Desaki's Hours of operation are Tuesday-Thursday 4pm-10pm, Friday & Saturday 4pm-2am & Sunday Noon-10pm 570-839-2500 www.desakirestuarant.com

Pocono Alliance announces Week of the Young Child, 2010 – April 11th to 17th. The Week of the Young Child is an annual celebration sponsored by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), the worlds' largest early childhood education association, with nearly 100,000 members and a network of over 300 local, state, and regional affiliates.

The purpose of the Week of the Young Child is to focus public attention on the needs of young children and their families and to recognize the early childhood programs and services that meet those needs.

NAEYC first established the Week of the Young Child in 1971, recognizing that the early childhood years (birth through age 8) lay the foundation for children's success in school and later life. The Week of the Young Child is a time to plan how we--as citizens of a community, of a state, and their families.

HR Committee's April Breakfast

We know what you did last night . . . ?

Social Networking and the Workplace

Can employers monitor what employees post about their company on social networking sites?

Does that change if the employee posts on non-work hours?

How far can an employer go once it views an employee post on a social networking site? Counseling? Discipline?

These and many other questions will be answered at the HR Committee's April breakfast meeting to be held:

Wednesday, April 28, 2010 at Camelback Mountain Resort

Victoria Mavis, President of Core People Resources, LLC and Attorney David M. Steckel of Flamm Walton, PC will address these questions and more.

Registration is at 8:00 a.m. and the presentation begins at 8:30 a.m.. Cost $15.00 Chamber member, $20.00 non-member.
