All Men and Women Created Equal

Began with Seneca Falls Convention,
Suffrage that took seventy years to fix.
The efforts that never lose attention,
An eternal battle in politics.

Committed to social equality,
Susan B. Anthony spoke for their rights.
Alice Paul, a leader of quality,
The fight for justice never lost her sight.

Women challenged the Declaration's claim,
"All men are created equal," quoted.
Gaining the right to vote was women's aim,
A movement in which they were devoted.

Women's continued role like the ocean,
The voice of influence and emotion.
