Monroe County Bar Foundation provides $11,000 in scholarships to local grads

Stroudsburg, PA – The Monroe County Bar Foundation’s Chairman William Reaser and Vice Chairman Thomas Casale recently presented $11,000 in scholarships to local high school graduates.

In honor of the late Judge Ronald E. Vican, the Foundation awarded a $1,000 scholarship to Isabella Horvath. Horvath is a graduate of Pocono Mountain East High School. An athlete who embodies the best in academics and athletics will be attending Bloomsburg University and pursuing her dream of becoming a nurse.

The Foundation also awarded Kate Briegel from East Stroudsburg South, Pocono Mountain East’s Dominick Genovese, Theresa Harding from East Stroudsburg North, Tyler Moore from Pleasant Valley and Pocono Mountain West’s Paulina Tes each with $2,000 in support of their future endeavors toward their college careers. Students will be attending universities including American University, Villanova University, Ursinus College, Northampton Community College and Wesleyan University. Students will be furthering their education with concentrations ranging from economics, government, law, business, and political science.
