East Stroudsburg, PA— Pumpkin and face painting, a moon bounce, balloon sculptures, games, music, and refreshments will be part of the festivities at Family Fun Day, being held on Saturday, October 4, at Dansbury Park in East Stroudsburg.

The free, annual event is open to the public and is sponsored by Pocono Services for Families and Children. It runs from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., rain or shine.

During the day, the Cops 'n' Kids Literacy Program will be handing out complimentary books and featuring guest readers from the Stroud Area Regional Police. Community groups like Pocono Greyhound Adoption, Women's Resources and the East Stroudsburg Fire Department will be on hand.

A community yard sale will be another highlight of the event. Spaces are still available for a donation of $10 each; reserve a spot by calling Jackie at 570-421-2711, x230.

Some great prizes/baskets will be offered through a tricky tray to benefit PSFC/Monroe County Head Start. Music will be provided by a DJ and there will be food like hot dogs and hamburgers.

Family Fun Day takes place during PA Promise for Children Month, which is celebrated every October. Information on quality early childhood education will be available and free learning resources/materials will be displayed.
