staff spotlight

Introducing our spectacular Director of Dining Services, Dana Dischert! Now, Dana has been working in the food industry for over twenty years - however, she's a master at way more than just food! She's an EMT, a mechanic, experienced with hair & nails - is there anything that she can't do? She tells us her favorite cuisine to cook is Italian, with chicken parm as her favorite dish, and has a passion of working in dining services for special needs. She also very much adores the environment of Ivy Gables, and we are so glad to hear that, as we adore having her here! Thank you, Dana!

- New Year's Eve

Welcome!

Welcome to Ivy Gable's first official newsletter, written by the residents, for the residents! Ivy Vines is a monthly newsletter that will be distributed on the first of each month. It will feature staff, residents, upcoming events, birthdays, and creative writing pieces from staff and residents. If you are interested in becoming part of the newsletter, please see Ina, our Resident Editor, or Jordan Herring at the front desk. Thanks in advance for making this a truly special newsletter that we can all enjoy!

Introducing New Residents

Ms. Lena, who moved in on 10/25, is a proud & fun Italian with a love for activities!

Ms. Arline, who moved in on 11/22, is a second-time resident at Ivy Gables who studied Chinese culture in college and spent time in multiple Asian counties!

resident spotlight

Ina Jacobs is our Resident Editor in Chief for Ivy Vines. Ina has been living at Ivy Gables for over six months and has already made her mark! Her enthusiastic and passionate attitude is infectious. When Ina isn't working on the Ivy Vines newsletter, you can find her in the Dover Café managing the day-to-day necessities. During her free time, Ina enjoys intellectual discussions, reading and watching documentaries. An Arden expert, Ina has many connections throughout the community! If you ever have any questions about the happenings in Arden, she is your go-to woman!
