Named after Dr. George M. Hampton, Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Army (Retired), the George M. Hampton Foundation is a public, non-profit organization. Dr. Hampton is a distinguished alumni of North Carolina A&T University and a Combat, Infantry veteran of the Korean War. The George M. Foundation is so named in honor of Dr. Hampton's lifelong legacy of public service, and his commitment to supporting academic excellence and opportunities for students in the greater Prince William County area. The Foundation is made up of a team volunteers, each with extensive professional experience in government and private industry. Since its establishment in 2005, the Foundation has been committed to providing help where the need is greatest through sponsorship and participation in various public service programs for citizens in need. A key part of the Foundation's contribution to the community is its annual scholarship competition for graduating seniors from public schools in Prince William County and the surrounding area. The Foundation is the non-profit affiliate of the Pi Lambda Lambda Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and is especially happy to partner with Pi Lambda Lambda which also provides scholarship opportunities for students in Prince William County.
